A gloomy record

Dull May was a record- 31st the lowest for 11 years. breaking month to forget. The minimum recorded was 3.1C (38F) on the 10th. According to the Halesowen Station Climatological normal.

The rainfall was up on

There was a total of 114 mm

(4.5 inches) making it the temperatures were down, rain was up and it was the dullest on record. Temperatures were all second wettest since 1969. below average with the There were 22 rainy days with maximum of 20C (68F) on the a total of 81.3 hours of rain.