

No 83

Dry story

Though November is customarily the wettest month of the year locally, this year saw only 50 per cent of the usual rainfall, says C. G. Roberts of Hayley Green Climatological Station.

Temperatures were, however, well up on average, by some two degrees in fact, and ranged from 16.1C (61F) to minus 6.1C (21F).